WARNING

UNDER THE FAIR TRADING ACT 1999

Under the provisions of the Fair Trading Act 1999 several conditions are implied into contracts for the supply of certain goods and services.

These conditions mean that the supplier named on this form is required to ensure that the recreational services it supplies to you are

- rendered with due care and skill, and
- as fit for the purpose for which they are commonly bought as it is reasonable to expect in the circumstances, and
- reasonably fit for any particular purpose or might reasonably be expected to achieve any result you have made known to the supplier.

Under section 32N of the Fair Trading

Act 1999, the supplier is entitled to ask you to agree that these conditions do not apply to you. If you sign this form, you will be agreeing that your rights to sue the supplier under the Fair Trading Act 1999 if you are killed or injured because the services were not rendered with due care and skill or they were not reasonably fit for their purpose, are excluded, restricted or modified in the way set out in this form.

NOTE: The change to your rights, as set out in this form, does not apply if your death or injury is due to gross negligence on the supplier's part. "Gross negligence" is defined in the Fair Trading (Recreational Services) Regulations 2004.

I understand that my signature to this document constitutes a complete and unconditional release of all liability of the proprietors of Billabong Trail Rides to the greatest extent allowed by law in the event me and/or the children under my care, suffering injury or death.
